

Mr. Butlin brings 35 years of experience in both public and private business, covering real estate finance, development, construction and downtown revitalization. Mr. Butlin has worked in construction, Community Reinvestment Act and Urban Renewal lending with Wells Fargo Bank throughout California. He developed, constructed and managed commercial property for Elite Properties of America in Colorado Springs, CO and has worked in downtown revitalization both in Colorado Springs and Pensacola, FL.

Mr. Butlin is a current member of the International Downtown Association and the Urban Land Institute.