

Kim Barber Tieman,
*Program Director with the Benedum
Foundation and a representative with the Highmark Foundation*

Kim Barber Tieman is the Health and Human Services Program Director for the Claude Worthington Benedum Foundation. Kim has a Masters Degree in Social Work and is a Licensed Social Worker in West Virginia. She has a background in community development, program development and management, grant writing, grants management, and training.

Kim served as an adjunct faculty member for the West Virginia University School of Social Work Masters of Social Work Program Charleston campus for 18 years, where she taught classes in non-profit management, finance, and social welfare policy. She has more than 30 years of experience working in nonprofit, state government and school settings. Kim is an active community volunteer. She serves on the boards of the West Virginia Oral Health Coalition, the Appalachian Regional Commission's Health Council, The Appalachian Funders Network health workgroup, West Virginia VOAD, Philanthropy West Virginia Mission Advancement, The Kanawha Council on Philanthropy, and Workforce West Virginia. Kim serves on the WV ACES Coalition steering committee and is co-chair of the West Virginia Early Childhood Council's Health Committee. She is on the WVU Visiting Committee for the School of Social Work, and is she Past-President of the National Association of Social Workers - West Virginia Chapter.